

COVID-19 as a Historical Picture

Kosaka Sorao

The work is illustrated with contemporary attributes. By depicting the world situation surrounding COVID-19 using these attributes, the present day is positioned as a history within time that continues from the past to the future, and is used as a device to pass it on as a narrative painting.

